

A RESUME OF THE SOCIAL EVENTS FOR THE WEEK.

A Week of Unprecedented Gaiety .-- A Flood of Entertainments Big and Little, Informal and Pretentious-Balls, Hops, Dances, Teas, Luncheons, Birthday Parties, Surprise Parties, Receptions Dinners, Debuts, Compilmentaries, Conversagiones-The Devotees of Cards Represented at High Five, McGinty and Suchre Parties-The Several Clubs and Their Works-Some Things That will Happen on and About Christmas and New Years-A Host of Items Society is Interested in-Personals, Arrivals, Departures and Where Mr. Legion will Spend Christmas.

Miss Lottie Butler is seriously ill.

Bunnie Meade is home for the holidays. The Indiana society has decided to quit. Miss Emma Smith is visiting in Atchi-

Mrs. E. Langton is visiting in Cincin Ed. Allen will pass the holidays in

"It is more blessed to give than to re

Miss Fanny Lewis reached home last Charles and Fred Hamilton are home

Mrs. Dell Dean of Pittsburg, is visiting

Mrs. Gillis Smith has returned from he W. P. and Mrs. W. Beattie leave for Chicago today. Mrs. M. W. Levy spent part of the week in Kansas City.

Rea Woodman is expected home from school tonight. Charles McKnight will spend the holi-

Mrs. Leo Redding is visiting her parents in Sloux City, Ia.

Miss Malinda Ross is home from her visit to Ellsworth, Miss Pond of College Hill, will soon

Mrs. Avery Turner, of Newton, will spend Sunday in the city.

Sunday in the city.

Mr. Shirley Schooler has gone to Louisville, Ken., to reside. Mrs. E. H. Creditor is entertaining Mrs.

dey, of Topeka There is a man in town who lends money

Mr. Mont Brandom will attend the holiday festivities in town. Miss Ella Sowders is soon to be married

Miss Mable Titsworth is home from school for the holidays. Miss Jennie Polk has returned to her Tom McMechan will spend Christmas at

"Gratitude" would be a popular theme Miss Nellie Zimmerly is home from Bethany college, Topeka Most of you have promised that you wont tell," haven't you?

One of the best doctors in town is ill and is taking his own medicine. Mrs. I. Gross will entertain the Entre Nous club next Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Steadman, of Anthony, are the guests of Mrs. H. G. Rose.

Carl Skinner entertained his little friends royally yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Thompson of Wellington, has

A boy first shows his fondness for a girl by denying it without being questioned

A man acts in a millinery store a good leal like a woman would in a billiard hall. The girl who gets a diamond ring for Christmas will give a card party soon Mr. and Mrs. J. Hammond are enter-taining Mr. and Mrs. Lenhart of Mt.

dr. and Mrs. Wallaston entertained West Side Card club last Wednesday

Tuesday, the Misses Fechheimer enter-tained in honor of Miss Morganthal, their

Miss Golda Green, of Wyoming, will end the winter with Mrs. George Van Werden. The Unity club will give a Chrismas ball at the A. O. U. W. hall, Friday evening, Dec. 36.

The Time Kiln club did not hold their regular Saturday evening dance, last that they are diamonds, evening. Where is the child that does not know on what day of the week Christmas comes this year?

Mrs. J. L. Sullivan, of College Hill, is entertaining Mrs. Kelly and Miss Morse of

The first thing that occurs to a child on

c. 26, is the immense distance until next Christmas. A young man who pasn't been married wo months was at the theatre alone the other night.

The social at the Methodist church Wednesday evening is said to have been a great

A Wichita man ships oysters in the shell from the coast and feeds them on the floor of his cellar. There was to have been a German at the Coronado club Christmas night, but it has been declared off.

Some extra flourishes are said to be put on in the preparations for "Our Clubs" New Years' ball.

Miss Josie Jones, of Shelbyville, Ky., is spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pittinger. This is a good time of year for a revival.

So many people try to spread frozen butter on crumbly bread. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Campbell of South Ida, entertained a number of friends, Thursday evening.

Most people agree that the best way to get a reporter to put your name in the paper is to ask him not to

The excellence of the S. & B's program Tuesday evening was only exceeded by its performance, it is said.

Sol. Smith Russell will play here two days after Christmas. We ought to thank Mr. Crawford for that.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bristow have issued cards announcing the twenty-fifth anni-versary of their marriage. There is a man in town who will not al low his name to be mentioned in the paper under any circumstances. There was a butterfly social in Wichita the other night. It must have been a sort of a buckwheat cake affair.

Miss Fannie Colson, daughter of the representative at-large of Oklahoma, is the guest of Mrs. E. H. Dorsey.

Mrs. M. E. Lebo, who has been visiting friends in Wichita, will leave this mora-ing for her home in Illinois. Mr. E. J. Sullivan and Miss Lizzie Love-ne were married at the Emporia Avenue curch Wednesday evening. If all children's wishes were fulfilled, every father in the country would be keeping a confectionary store.

The man in the moon becomes full on the twenty-lifth of this mouth, Christmas night. He will not be alone.

A Wichita woman claims to get her Christmas goods cheaper by putting off buying them until Christmas evc. A man who has just lost a house by fire never thinks much of the humorist who asks him if it burnt up or down.

We are sure of one thing. The woman who gets a scalskin cloak for Christmas will be on the street next Friday.

The people who feel Christmas most are the parents who hung up a little stocking but for one Christmas, years ago.

There will be a special meeting of the board of directors of the Coronado club, Monday evening, Dec. 22, at 7:30. We were talking to a man last night who claimed he had not spoken a cross word to his wife for twelve years.

The yacht in the fourth act of the "Stow away" Monday evening, was the best stage setting ever seen in Wichita.

There is a woman in town who was a playmate of Julia Rive-King, the great planiste, when she was a little girl.

A Witchita man bought $10,000 worth of corn when it was ten cents a bushel. It is now worth fifty cents a bushel.

It is said of one student in Wichita, that he carries so many books to and from school, that he is becoming bow-legged.

A Wichita postess always presents her hushand with a poem Christmas He likes it. It doesn't affect his bank account.

This is the time of year that the busy man discovers that he has never even torn the last January sheet off the old calen-

The small boy who receives a hatchet for The small boy who receives a natchet for Christmas is usually not deceived into splitting the kindling for more than one day.

A new mane quartesse has been splitting that the composed of Bion Hull, first bass; George Hammann, second bass; J. R. Shields, first tenor; Robert South a second bass; J. R. Shields, first tenor; Robert South a second bass; J. R. Shields, first tenor; Robert South a second base and the composition of t ing a letter in his pocket of his wife's, di rected to a furrier company, this time of Some people believe that Christman should be transferred to the 29th of February. It would only come once in four

Miss Nannie Mesde saw Minnie Skinner in New York recently. She is in good health and progressing nicely in her art work.

What has become of the girl who used to stick her little finger out straight by itself when she lifted a glass of water to her lips?

There is a model little man in town who has had his ears peirced so his wife can get him a pair of ear-rings for his Christmas

The streets were undoubtedly very crowded yesterday. There were baby carriages everywhere, occasionally two

There is no trouble getting a child out of bed Christmas morning. If a child wakes up at 4 o'clock it will stay awake until daylight.

It is a rare sight to see anybody walking on the Main street sidewalks, north of Central avenue. Everybody prefers the pavement.

Walter Dyer, who is gaining a reputa-tion as an expert at foot ball at the state university, will spend the holidays with his parents.

The Emersonian society of the High school gave no entertainment Friday. They have postponed it until the day be-

The music at the Catholic church Christmas morning will be beautiful. Havdn's third mass will be given. You ought not to miss it.

The Grasshopper club's dance Christmas night is complimentary to the member's friends and some effort is being put out to make it a model ball.

Jerry Simpson, our new congressman, was in Wicuita the other day and asked a friend to take a ride with him on one of "them fishpole cars."

One of the richest women in town wears Rhinestone jewelry. Because she is rich and can afford them, nobody doubts but

There is but one explanation for the lover who falls out with his sweetheart a week before Christmas, and then falls in again a week after—a Valentine.

We often wonder how the parents arrange the stocking business Christmas eve in a family where there is a very lenn little boy and a very big fat one.

You neighbor's boy will get a dram when he wanted a gun and your boy will get a gun when he wanted a dram. It most always turns out that way.

After some Wiehita men have be The K. X. Gs. gave an informall ball ings, there greatest surprise when they get home is that Tuesday night, which was well attended.

After some Wichita men have been east and circulated among sixteen story building in the they get home is that they cannot see over the top of the largest building in towo.

The Time Kiln club will give its first ball next Tuesday evening at its new club rooms. (Peerless Hall, old court house.) Dancing will begin at 8:30 sharp.

A woman tells her husband in winter that most of her dresses are for summe and when summer comes she tells hi that they have become old-fashioned.

There was a ball in town this week where several of the ladies present have requested that their names be omitted from the report. They are not given.

George Paxton, one of the old theatre crowd that used to hang around Wichita in"boom days,"is playing in a "Gondolier" company in the northern part of the state.

Henry Stanley will not come to Wichita or Topeka. The only Kansas town he will strike is Fort Scott. He will eat Christ-mas dinner with the mayor of that town. Why don't Wichita have Calithumpian parades on New Years day any more? Several years ago masks and false faces formed a great of the holiday stock in toy-

There was a girl on the streets yesterday with a Jane Hading veil on, and she was stared at like she was a ghost. This time last year every woman in town was wear-

The boy who will wear a girl's hat or What has become of the young man who used to go over to Augusta, and afterwards speak of his trip "east?"

A Wichita girl announces that she will marry the first man who presents himself, provided he can sing and dance well. This girl, herself, has to be called for breakfast every morning.

A Wichita man who lives at a house where they always have plum-pudding for Christmas dinner, wants to know what a person shall do if he gets a red-hot A young couple who have been going together for two years fell out the other night oversome trifle. She immediately went east on a visit and will bring a huswent east on a board home with her. A Wichita man never allows a barber to shave him without first putting a towel or cloth over the mirror in front of him. He says any man looks foolish peering at his wn image in a glass. People who want to get off an electric car while it is in full motion, and on the side the iron posts are on, will show great foresight if they wait until they get near a drugstore before they jump.

It is said that the old young society men and the younger set do not view each other kindly. This shows, if it is so, that the old set are getting jealous and fear they will be dropped out entirely.

Wichita people who go to Chicago are always bringing strange news about the Wichita people there. The latest is that Len Washburne is one of the leading play-ers in a billiard tournament.

There is a story teller in town who when he hears a story in a crowd an wants to tell another, start out with, "Now that doesn' remind me of the story I have to tell."

"Oh, isn't it nice?" "It's just the thing." "So kind of you to think of me." You had better practice up on these expressions. You will have to say them soon, probably when you don't mean them.

An interesting game of foot ball was played at Garfield university yesterday afternoon between the Garfields and a picked eleven of the West Side, resulting in a score of 3 to 0 in favor of the Garfield Karl Gardner, the "little bunch of lilaes actor, jumped over the footlights of Hav-lin's Chicago theatre the other night and thrashed a too critical auditor most un-mercifully. He was a striking perform-

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Clara Berlowitz and Mr. Cadi Klein, which will occur at the residence of the uncle of the bride, S. Goldstein, 529 North Emporia avenue, Monday afternoon, De-agitation which i

Smythe, second tenor.

When Tank Kee, the lecturer on China, was here, a little Wichita girl was asked by her parents upon her return from one of his addresses if he was a Chinaman, "No," she suid, "he is not a Chinaman, he is a real human man."

Christmas is hard on the house.

rins that hold the stockings make a lot of new holes in the wall, the parior carpet gets a dose of candle grease, and the peo-ple who trim the Christinas tree usually select the best cushioned chair to stand

A terrible thing happened at a dinner party in Wichita week before last, where somebody was trying to be funny at the expense of a small boy. Of course the small boy came out ahead, as usual. If you know a young lawyer who boards at a hotel, he can tell you about it. Every member of the Hypatia club is Every member of the Hypatia cino is targed to attend the business meeting to-morrow, Monday, Dec. 22, at the residence of Mrs. H. G. Toler, 431 North Wass are-tue. The annual election of officers will take place and arrangements be perfected for the fifth anniversary meeting.

Mrs. Adam Imboden gave a delightful ho-o'clock tea on Friday afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. A. W. Oliver, Mrs. Stamper, of Decatur, His.; Mrs. Gilman, Mrs. Boughton, of Kansas City: Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. W. F. Stanley, Mrs. R. P. Murdock, and Mrs. Hiram Imboden.

Mrs. H. G. Ruggles entermaned the enjoy-evening. Cards was the agency of enjoy-ment. The players were Mr. and Mrs. Mc. Kennon, Mr. and Mrs. Creditor, Mr. and Mrs. O'Keefe, Mrs. W. Balley, of Topeka, Mrs. O'Keefe, Mrs. W. Balley, o'Keefe, Mrs. W Mrs. H. G. Ruggles entertained Tuesday Mesdames Baker and Turner, Mlss I Turner, Messrs. Bellingsley and Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Murdock celebrated the thirteenth anniversary of their marriage on Thursday evening by giving a small dinner party. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George L. Rouse, Sc., Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Savin.

of H. D. Turner and May E., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Clements, at the First Presbyterian church, Thesday evening, Dec. 23, at 8 o clock. Both are well known society people and have hosts of friends who will wish them every happiness.

Certain Wichita firms have been trying good-looking women as bill collectors. So far the scheme has been unsuccessful. Three of the women married inside of a mouth and four more are engaged while the balance sympathize with the poor fel-lows who have run into debt and have not

There have been two cases where the wife has come to Wichita and left her young baby with its grandmother and then went away again. There is some discussion as to whether it is due to care-lessness on the part of the mother or com-pasion on the part of the grandmother. There is a new young man in town who Voice. asks the girls upon whom he calls to play

"Her Bright Smile Haunts Me Still," and Piano, Polacoa Brilliante,

There is a man in town who hasn't been in his kitchen for five years. He leaves his wife to carry the coal and build the fires, and do the other pleasant little tasks. Still, this same man is noted over town for being a great advocate of reforms.

The program of the Willard C. L. S. C. is:

History lesson Chap, XI......Miss Mills History lesson Chap.

English Literature....Miss Adams
Reading..."The Beginning's Astronomy"

Mrs. Clifford.

Questions on Astronomy Article.....

Miss Weaver

English Phrase and Fable...Miss Millen
Quotations from Chancer.

Mrs. Frank Wood entertained the North Side Card club at her home Friday evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Kirk, Col. and Mrs. J. L. Dver, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brooks, Dr. and Mrs. Stoner, Mr. and Mrs. Coler Sim, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bently, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Throckmorton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moore, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. F. Richardson, of Geuda Springs, Miss Addie Brook and Walter Dyer.

Until recently Wichita has had a rather centiar case where a man was zealously guarded from all feminine arts by his mother. She would not leave him alone in the parlor with a woman. If he took any one to the theatre, she went along although he is past thirty. She also affected youthful ways and youthful studies that she might ender herself more atthat she might render herself more at tractive to her son. The other day they moved away, it is said, to escape some dan-gerous Delilah.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Polk entertained at their home on North Emporia, Wednesday evening. McGinty and high five was order of the entertainment. The party was in honor of Miss Jennie Polk of Council Grove. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walface, Miss Kate Pullen, Miss Nelson, Missas Armes and Julia Sommer. Nelson, Misses Agnes and Julia Sommer, Mr. Wyheart, Miss Wyheart, Miss Belo-witz, Miss Wilson, Miss Norling, Elea and Earnest Harris, Jim Shaut, Lon Narsdrall and Mr. and Mrs. John Polk of Council

Wellington Press: "J. Pierpont Morgan, son of the well-known Boston banker, was married last Thursday to Miss. Jane. Morton Grew, one of the belles of the Hub. Judging from this gentleman's name he is undoubtedly a relative of the Murdock brothers, Mrs. A. Pemberton, of Emporia, and Mrs. Jacob Stutler, of this city." And the Press might have added: "and who only lacked in the sum of twenty or fifty millions for a warm recognition and an inmillions for a warm recognition and an in

The new card club (which, by the way, The new card club (which, by the way, is still without a mame) on the occasion of its initial meeting last Tuesday, and that very enjoyably, by Mrs. Charles Poole. In this club, if a member cannot attend he or she must send a substitute or forfeit his record. The players, Tuesday evening, were Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Bion Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green. Arch McVicker and Mrs. Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cohn.

Friday evening Ralph Millison enter-tained at his rooms 203 North Main street, it being the sixth annual reunion of the Crocker Western Po o club, an organiza-tion that flourished in Wichita when the tion that flourished in Wichita when the rink craze was on, and very successfully captured the medals in contests with simi-lar clubs in the state. All the members, Fred Baldwin, Clarence Woodman, Harry Piper, Marcus Cassett, Charles Bracken, George McDonald and Sim Crabill were present with the exception of the last two. They played a game of polo and after-wards partook of a palatable supper.

Thursday evening Miss Grace McAdamsentertained the McGinty club, in honor of Miss Edite Du Hadway of Jerseyville, Ill.
The evening was spent pleasantly with cards, dancing and music. The present were Miss Bessie Dagner. Miss Pearl Skinner, Miss Katie Junkerman, Miss Oertie Lauck, Miss Gertie Moore, Miss Dora Woods, M ss Florence Washburn, Miss Gertie Jackson, Miss Josephine Ballance, Miss Elsie Woodman, Miss Katie Green, Miss Maggie Davis, Miss Mollie Ross, Miss Mytle Sluss, and Tom Newcomb, Sherman Skinner, Carl Niedglander, Mont Hallowell, Charlie McAdams.

Last Wednesday evening quite a nun A Wichita young man who recently had a foot or so taken off the tail of his cape-overcoat is still wondering whether the city council's street-sweeping machine agitation which followed immediately after was personal. an elegant luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Southwell, Mr. and Mrs. McInand MS SORTHWEI, Mr and MS Activityre, Misses Cobb, Powell, Sheehan, Otto, Bliss, Anna and Mollie Niswonzer, Dollie and Nellie Poffenberger, Long, Tobd, Potts, Blades, Taylor, Moore, Lane, Messrs, Kelchner, Glazier, Lane, Childers, Nepple, Berhaus, Simmons, Poffenberger, Skinner,

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Little entertained quite a number of their friends. A few enjoyable hours at "Mc-Ginty" finished with a dainty lunch made a charming entertainment. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Black, Mr. and Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Black, Mr. and Mrs. George Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Niederlander, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smyth, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ferrell, Col. and Mrs. Innes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Blackwelder, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Murdock, Dr. and Mrs. Oldham, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bently, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Waller, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thomps, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reed and Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reed, and

Dr. and Mrs. Fabrique.

A good many people have had something to say about last week's mention of Louie Lord, the actress, in last Sunday's paper. Louie Ria, the leading lady in "Jim, the Penman," indignantly denies that she is Louie Lord, and locates her in New York theater. Other people are sure they could not mistake the identity. And now comes the Pratt Times with another atory that "Louie was the leading man in "Don Caesar de Bazan" while old J. A. Lord played some old hag's part. Poor man, he's dead now, But what great old times those were when Louie, and the Lelands and the Kendalls played the circuit composed of Wichita, El Dorado, Winfield, Wellington and Arkansas City. And Wichita the only one which could boast a hall, while the others had to clean out an empty store room. But everybody enjoyed it, all the same."

Sadie York's card party Thursday even-

Salie York's eard party Thursday evening is spoken of in many complimentary terms. The company was made up principally of people who were the most active in Wichita society two or three years ago and the spirit of the occasion periods of the gaiety for which the set is noted. Mrs. Fred Baidwin and H. L. Pierce took the hooby prizes and Mrs. Lytle and Bion Hull the first prizes. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greene. Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. and Mrs. B. B. Cushman, Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Cushman, Mr. and Mrs. Pred Baidwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lytle, Misses Alice Boyd, Mande Struble, Mille Suppinfield, Mande Pratt, Tella Tusch, Miss Lytle, May Young, and Messrs, H. L. Pierce, Grant Woodman, O. B. Stocker, Ike H-ttinger, H. Hagney, Charles Carey, W. Lyting Osborne and Sadie York's card party Thursday even W. Irving Osborne and

The following is the program of a very nteresting pupils recita given at Mrs.
Dunn's rooms in the Sedgwick block on Monday afternoon, December 15:
Piano duett. Valse Caprice. Rubenstein
Miss Butherford and Mrs. Dunn. Piano ... liouite Op 55 No Miss Parks Voice ..... Only The Miss Finny.

when they finish they find him in tears.

Some of the girls have taken it as a compliment to their piano-playing, while the more sensible ones woulder at him. He ought, at least to explain him.—He

Mrs. A. S. Nelson was one individual to open the parlor door of her pretty home last evening, to find a coterie of congenial friends and relatives assembled to celebrate the anniversary of her birth. The surprise was planned and happily carried out by her husband and friends. A dinner was served which was enjoyed by all. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Camp, Mrs. Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. J.no. Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ash, Mr. and Mrs. Cowley, Mrs. Bruner, Mrs. S. Herman, Ed Slaymaker, B. Reeve; Misses Daisy, Lulu and Bessie Bruner, Irma Ash, Clennie Fitch, Mrs. Rand, of Peabody; Mr. Huntsborger, R. H. Darragh; Messre, J. A. Arthur, George Holden, Dr. W. W. Hays, of Michigan, and Mr. Fuller, of Bradford county, Pa.

The Hermenian society of the Lewis scademy gave an entertainment Friday evening fully up to the club's ability. The "Good Night"......Society Quartette The Allman administrator's sale on The Allman administrator's sale on College Hill, Tuesday, was interesting. Both sexes were represented among the bidders. The sale lasted from 10 in the morning until 6 in the evening, a light lunch being served at noon. Everything in the house, which was nicely furnished, went under the hammer. Some of the furniture was disposed of at a remarkably low prace, while it is claimed that some things were bought at twice the price they could be purchased from a store. This is so of almost all anctions. A parlor suite of five pieces of solid mahogany, which originally cost $300 sold for about $100. It was in a splendid state of preservation. The jewelry was old fashioned and did not bring much. A cherry cabinet mantel

The jewelry was old fashioned and did not bring much. A cherry cabinet mantel sold for $10. A book case went for $40. Rugs, tables and stores brought good prices. The only pictures in the house were two large oval oil paintings of Mr. and Mrs. Aliman. The glass was cracked across the face of the latter. Mrs. Aliman was a widow of perhaps 65 years. She lost her husband about forty years ago in Wheeling. West Virginia. She left all her money, which was considerable, to a charitable institution in the east. Mrs. S. E. Jocelyn entertained last Mon

Mrs. S. E. Jocelyn entertained last Monday evening in compliment to Mr. Eugene Brando, her nephew. Everything was well appointed and carried out to the credit of the hostess and the enjoyment of her guests. The congenial company danced the evening rapidly away and concluded with a tasty supper. The guests were Messrs. Bruce Priddy, H. Hagney, Williard Boone, George Lewis, Eph. Hoffman, Maurice Viele, Grant Woodman, Walter Fouts, Will Hoffman, Mont. Hallowell. Ben Parmely, Robert Rodgers, Charles McAdams, Ralph Niederlander, W. Irving Osborne, H. L. Gordon, Carl Niederlander, Sherman Skinner, George Hammann, Ed Campbell, Thomas Newcomb, George Chapman, Ike Hettinger, Frank Russell, C. V. Topping Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mackenzie and Misses Lulu Anawait, Mabel Larimer, Ida Skinner, Mabel Ballance, Mattie Fabrique, Sara Chapman, Hannah Ellis, Maude Pratt, Bessie Ryder, Dell Baynum, Mabel Clement, Gertie Moore, Genevra Jocelyn, Ida Werthheimer, Harriet Johnston, Mamie Green, Elsie Woodman, Virgaline Lucy, Sallie Pickrell, Bessie Dagner, Sadie York and the Misses Green.

Friday evening Mrs. W. W. Johnston entermined for her daughter, Harriet. A good many superlatives could be used, acgood many superlatives could be used, according to the judgment of the several guests, in a description of this entertainment. Suffice to say that with brilliantly lighted quarters, an able hostess and a gay company, music, dancing, and a splendlid supper, it was in point of enjoyment, all that could be wished. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Johnston, Jr. Mrs. S. E. Jocelyn, Messrs, Eph. Hoffman, Grant Woodman, Fred Ross, George Lewis, Bruce Puddy, Sherman Skinner, Williard Boone, Harry Pope, Will Hoffman, Maurice Viele, Carl Niederlander, Sherman Skinner, Mont. Hallowell, Bob. Rodgers, Ben Parmely, Chas. McAdams, Ralph Niederner, Mont. Hallowell, Bob. Rodgers, Ben Parmely, Chas. McAdams, Ralph Nieder-lander, H. L. Gordon, Ed. Campbell, Geo. Chapman, Vincent, Tom Newcomb, Eu-gene Brando, and James Mulvey, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Waiker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook and Misses Ida Skinner, Mary Rutan, Maud Pratt, Mabel Larimer, Mattie Fab-

The Emersonian and Holmes societies The Emersonian and Holmes societies of the Sixth grade in the Irving school will hold a union Christmas meeting Tuesday afterneon, Dec. 25. The friends and parents of the pupils are invited to be present. The following program will be Song School Recitation Lizzie Newcomb Recitation Mildred Hayworth Reading Ida Mahoney Vocal Solo Hattle Strode

Vocal Solo
Original Christmas Story
Recitation
Vocal Quartette
Parsons, Annie Faucett, Hattie Whet-Mazie Alex Logis Atchison
Annie Faucett, Lilly Recitation Nettie Tuplett
Song Five Girls
Recitation Bee Baker ialogue.....Charlie Graves, Bee Baker,

Dialogue ...... Charlie Graves, Bee Baker, Robert Bean, Lenore Crawford, Maud Hodson, Archie Alex. Harry Street school will have Christmas exercises Wednesday afternoon. The sixth grade will render the following program: Song by the school, Come, All Ye Faithful. Sang by the school, cons. Arthur Preston.
The Three Hells Duleina Slyter.
The Christmas Tide Wayne Hays.
Duet Come, Seek the Bower."
Church Review of a School Girl.
Cora Shaw.

Waiting for Christmas ... Charley Preston.
The Arithmetician.
Solo and Chorus ... "If We Knew."
The Legend of the Northern ... ... Emma Franke. The Night After Christmas Willie Wilder Christmas Day Laure Van Deventer Song by the School Whistle and Hoe. Essays Cor Shaw Maggie Wilson and Mary Murphy 'Holy Night. Song by the School.... Essay, The First Christmas. Birdle Bayne, Vaughn Root. Elder Lamb's Donation ...

Elder Lamb's Donation.
The Crows Family.
The Debating Society.
Duet. "Silver Memory Beils."
Teiling Fortunes. Nettic Moseley.
Only a Boy Charles Morrison.
Little Mabel. Dors Haycroft.
Song by the School. "Good Night."

was the discussion of the question, Resolved, That the McKinley bill is detrimental to the best interests of our country Mr. P. B. Ross opened the discussion upon behalf of the affirmative. He gave many interesting figures regarding the production of sugar, etc. He sought to prove his side of the question by taking into consideration the advance of prices under this bill. Mr. Mont Hallowell opened for the negative. He commenced in a systematic manner to tear down his opponent's arguments. He very clearly proved, however, that the McKinley bill was not the cause of the general stagnation of trade. He left his side of the question well established until Mr. S. C. Raynes, for the affirmative, commenced to fire "grape and canister" right into the fortifications of the opposition. Mr. Haynes gave various schedules; showing the increase of prices under the McKinley bill. He closed by mentioning the effect that the bill would have on the ain industry. Mr. Andrew A. Smith then took the froor unon behalf of the negative. He commenced by striking heavy blowes right in the midst of the opposition. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Baynes and Mrs. S. E. Hallowell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Nogers, Mr. and Mrs. E. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mr. S. D. Hallowell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rowning May be added to the negative. He commenced by striking heavy blowes right in the midst of the opposition. He charty proved that the bill would have on the air industry would derive under this system of protection by the control of the protection by striking heavy blowes right in the midst of the extent of $20,00,000. He airs showed the benefit that the ting that the bill would have not provide the protection by striking heavy blowes right in the midst of the breath of the protection by the followed, who closed the disturbance of the protection by the m pitcher, L. C. Walker, set of usess, Miss Ida Eaton: napkins, F. B. Corzine; rose jar, Mrs. William H. Brown; fruit dish, Mr. and Miss O. C. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Boyle, Prof. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boyle; one half dozen teaspoons, Dr. and Mrs. Kirkwood; pickle castor, F. G. Raferty and family; cabinet casel, Minerva Townsend; sugar spoon, Hall family and throw, Ning and Mary Hall; fruit dish, Miss Belle Stont; throw, Minnie C. Brown, Rochester, N. Y.

The ninth recital of the pupils of the Wichita university Friday evening was in every way interesting and a success. The program was as follows:

Piano duo-Butterfly Gallop-Kunkel.

Piano quartette—Wallenhaupt's Grand March—Berg Mrs. Roy Sohn, Misses Shipe, Galloway and Nuss.

PART IL -MUSIC IN "HIGH LIFE."

Lord Titus Mountebink, brother to the Duke of Humbrum, poor in pocket but rich in the love he brars Lady Angelina).

George Chatfield.

The Marchioness of Ballyporeen, the heavy mother. Miss Judith Snips.
Lady Angelina Hardup, doughter to the marquis. Miss Nellie Jones.

Priggles, the ladies maid. Miss Birdie Love.

Wichita Lady Tells Buy Princess Victoria Mrs. M. J. Sherman, of this city, is pur Darmstadt, Ger., where she has been for move than a year. She carried betters from Hon. Wm. Griffenstein which gove be entry into some wealthy families at both Frankfort and Darmstait. Among the 'thousand ladies" who witnessed the bridal procession, through the courtesy of buty friends, who described what she saw to Mrs. Sherman, who put it into English for the benefit of the Excisis society

For the Special Schmidt of the School.

Interp. Page. Will forthom, with Holman March Page.

For Mont. Hallowell, 1600. Mortages, Ben Fallowell, 1600.

For Mont. Hallowell, 1600. Mortages, Ben Fallowell, 1600.

For Hallowell, 1600. Mortages, Ben Fallowell, 1600.

For Hallowell, 1600. Mortages, 1600.

For Hallowell, 1600. Mortages, 1600.

For Hallowell, 1600.

For Hallowel